SACRED SIGNS

Our first relic is of our parish patron, Saint Edward the Confessor, a holy king known for prayer, charity and care of the poor. Called "the Confessor" for faithfully living and defending the faith, his relic is a sacred sign of humility and devotion to God.

PASTOR'S CORNER

A Time to Pray, Heal and Hope

Dear brothers and sisters,

Our parish carries a heavy burden. Many of us are grieving, confused, angry and deeply hurt by the news concerning Fr. Ryan McCandless. It represents a profound violation of trust and causes real suffering, especially for the one who is affected.

Today, our hearts are especially with a young child and the child's family. No child should ever experience exploitation or abuse. We pray that God brings healing, justice, and peace. We also pray for our parish family, that we may not lose hope or allow the sins of an individual to separate us from Jesus Christ.

The Church must always be a safe place for children and vulnerable people. We remain committed to that responsibility. While the legal process unfolds, let us avoid speculation and pray that the truth will come to light. Justice and mercy are not opposites; both are part of the Gospel.

Even in moments like this, Christ remains with His Church. He does not abandon His people. Let us place our trust in Him, support one another, and continue to walk together in faith.

Tribute to Grandparents

One of the things that often gets my attention in parking lots or on road is license plate tag that says, "My World's Greatest Grandpa" or "World's Greatest Grandma." It teaches a great lesson on the value of grandparents whom we honor, love and appreciate today. Grandparents are the priceless treasures of God's gift to us. Their outstanding faith, remarkable character and mature love are the effects of their adventurous life experiences. They are the voices of the past, role models of the present and doors to the future. They are prophets of the present age who guide, correct, and lead the world to God. Today they deserve all our appreciation and gratitude for being the world's greatest grandpa and grandma. Let us express our love and say a prayer for them on this grandparent's day.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Gnanasekar
